Comments:	Just to correct the statement made by little prestwood farm, they are referring to the wrong location, they are talking about plots 7, 8,9 & forest which yes have been advertised and some sold recently these plots are nothing to do with Heathers farm sanctuary The farm also as pictured on Facebook has planted over 2000 hedge row, 100 fruit trees, have over 50 endangered sheep, over 100 chickens, plus ducks, goats etc. Also you will find prior to Heathers farm it was operated as manor farm and prior to that 60 years plus was owned by the [redacted] family who still operates at other locations owning over 400 acres thought it was important to correct the miss leading errors

Kind regards
