I would like to appeal the planning permission for 39 Hazelhurst crescent ,after looking at the plans online i have seen that in section 24 ownership certificates
And agricultural land declaration it states there is a residents association ,there is not and has never been one . Also on the plans it shows the lounge at the front of the house this is incorrect as the kitchen is at the front . It seems that no thought has been given to how dark the extension will make our kitchen .
Yours sincerely
