Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

We plan to convert and extend the current conservatory into an extension of the main property. This will be a single story extension to the rear of the property. It will be the same length as the current conservatory, but it will increase in width to follow the line of the main property. This new extension will include a downstairs WC and wheelchair access through double rear doors.

Has the work already been started without consent?

Please provide a description of existing and proposed materials and finishes to be used externally (including type, colour and name for each material)

Type:
Walls

Existing materials and finishes:

Proposed materials and finishes:
We will be using West Hoathly bricks to match the existing property to tie in seamlessly

Type:
Roof

Existing materials and finishes:
Currently ours and our neighbor have a shared shallow pitched roof to combine our two conservatories. It is made from black roofing felt.

Proposed materials and finishes:
We will extend our previous pitched roof to the full width of the extension. This will still match the neighbors as to be in keeping. It will also still be made from black roofing felt to match the neighbors too.

Type:
Windows

Existing materials and finishes:
The property consists of white UPVC windows

Proposed materials and finishes:
White UPVC windows

Type:
Doors

Existing materials and finishes:
Single White UPVC door the rear of the property

Proposed materials and finishes:
Double French doors which are made from white UPVC

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☑ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
