OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY DESIGN BRIEF

Name: Victoria Hartfield
Address: 10 Staples Barn, Henfield, BN5 9PN
Telephone: [redacted]

This specification should not be changed without first discussing it with the Occupational Therapist.

ADAPTATION: Dropped Kerb and Hardstanding for vehicle

This specification should not be changed without first discussing it with the Occupational Therapist.

Points to be considered a. Check locality and effects on other users of public right of way.

b. Minimum width for vehicle use – 2700 mm.

c. To drop to level not higher than 15 mm above adjacent channel.

d. Surface to be slip resistant.

e. Contrasts in texture and colour between dropped kerb and surrounding pavements.

f. Hardstanding area, particularly transfer area, should be as level as possible.

g. Drainage for surface water if necessary.

h.

Absolute minimum width	=	3000 mm
Preferred minimum width	=	3600 mm
For assisted wheelchair transfer	=	3900 mm

i. Minimum length 4800 mm.

Occupational Therapist: [redacted]

Telephone No: [redacted]

Date: 22.04.2026