
The works have been instructed following the findings of an arboricultural report.

Low crowns and deadwood overhanging public footpaths and carpark areas. By crown lifting and removing the deadwood the work would be contributing to a safer site.

None of the works would be detrimental nor affect the amenity value of the area.