Hi Alice

As discussed today, the applicants comments with respect to condition 5 infers that the rainwater harvesting system has been installed but the information provided does not give further details. The submitted information is therefore insufficient and I would not recommend that the condition is discharged.

Regards

Lee

Hi Alice

The applicants comments with respect to condition 5 infers that the rainwater harvesting system has been installed.
Please can you request additional details of the system as installed.

Thanks

Lee
