Comments Details

Commenter Type:	Consultee
Stance:	Customer made comments in support of the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:	- Design
Comments:	I am an adjoining property owner / occupier. I have been away for some weeks and have only just read the HDC letter inviting me to comment upon this application. I see that I have missed the deadline to respond, but since I fully support the clear design aspiration of this application, I do still feel that I should register that full support.

Kind regards
