"I believe that the existing floodlights have proved to be more intrusive than envisaged by local residents. Furthermore, when first installed, they created a glare hazard impacting motorists driving along Bartholomew Way in the direction of the club.

In view of the concerns expressed by residents and the potential impact on road users, I endorse the view of the Environmental Health Officer in recommending that a compliance assessment be made to confirm that the new lighting installation, once operational, is not causing any adverse impacts."