Reasons for comment:	- Overdevelopment
Comments:	Horsham and the surrounding area has been ruined through over development in recent years. Green spaces being used to build hundreds of houses is destroying the area, enough is enough. The roads and infrastructure in the surrounding area cannot cope with the load already. We see when there are heavy rains the roads near kilnwood Vale cannot cope. There are no hospitals of any worth in the area, lack of doctors, dentists the list goes on. No more building in the area!

Kind regards
