Comments:	This housing estate will have a huge effect on the village of Barns Green. I have been living in the village for over 12 years and slowly seen housing development increase and have accepted the new estates, their location and design which mostly fit in with village life. However this latest plan is absurd. 60+ houses opposite the hub of the village on land that is currently waterlogged!!! It's obvious that the applicant has no regard for the current occupants of Barns Green and are all about making money. The view coming into the village is beautiful, with the green fields and view of the ancient woodlands, all to be destroyed forever so the building industry and a few selfish landowners can make money. I hope that the council will reject the planning and give some thought of the current villagers, their way of life and their children that are fortunate to be in such a fantastic part of Sussex. Please don't destroy our village!
