Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:	- Design
Comments:	Having a young family myself and my family living in smalldole for the last 30 years we've been trying to find a family home and there is nothing around so we have had to buy one of these old bungalows and convert it into something that it's not really fit for a growning family.

A welcome addition and a better look than what is currently there!

Kind regards
