| Comments:            | 3000 new homes! That is just crazy for this area! Shall we try and keep Horsham and Crawley as separate places? Its all well and good building new homes but there is never ever serious thought given to what else is required for this scale of building. For example, doctors, dentists, schools. Rush hour trains to London already see people standing up from Crawley - there is no space. I know what the government targets are - but this is just nuts!! |

Kind regards
