Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I've already objected but now the go ahead for Gatwick to have a second runway ,surely more capable will be added on this area aswell to support the expansion ,Ofield is already so close to Gatwick this is not fair on residents to now have added flight noise and thousands of houses built.The last few weeks with road works as meant that traffic in and out of Ifield has been awful and backed up.We need are conservation green space especially if added population is now in our air don't add to the extra thousands of cars on the road aswell.
