Comments:	I currently live on the Miller Homes development and I am very concerned with the approach. When they finished the latest phase they upped and left the development in a state. We (the owners) are having to foot the bill to get the estate to resemble what Millers promised.

Millers did not follow through with the previous plans and the landscaping does not follow the plans.

The current play park is nit fit for purpose and we are having to fix it at our cost.

The additional houses is a concern as the local amenities are struggling and are not being improved.

Kind regards
