RECOMMENDATION:	Object
Colgate Parish Council Planning Committee object to this application. The Parish Council have concerns regarding the additional overloading this development would have on the existing local infrastructure which falls outside of the development. For example, the additional loading on the sewage works. local roads, GP's and the local hospital capacity. There is no mention of the future phases in this outline application and no mention of the completion of the relief roads.
