This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Details of the pre-application advice received

Good Afternoon Neil,

Thank you for your email.

I was the case officer for the previous applications at this site. I have looked at the plans submitted, and in order to vary the earlier permissions to build a smaller extension, you can submit an application to vary the plans condition (condition 1). This is called a Section 73 or variation of conditions application.

However, it may be simpler to submit a householder application. I believe this is slightly cheaper than a Section 73 application and has the same timescale for decision of 8 weeks.

As the previous permissions were for larger extensions, I think a smaller rear extension should be fine for this site. This would, however, be considered during the assessment of a submitted application.

Hope that helps.

Kind regards,
Bethan

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No
