Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:	- Overdevelopment
Comments:	I used to live in Ghyll Crescent and owned an acre of land on the edge of the stream. We were regularly visited by deer, [REDACTED] and foxes and tended our trees with the respect Ancient woodland deserves. Planning permission has been sought for this land for many years don't allow it again. There is NO work in Horsham for more people. Water is in short supply, a well known fact. Horsham is too big even now and the reason we left was over development.

Kind regards
