

There are some areas of decay within the buttresses at the base of the tree, these are located on the north, east, and western aspects. Due to the size and close proximity to the properties, It is recommended the tree be reduced to take some of the top weight out and maintain the tree at a suitable size.

After the works there would be a residual height of 19m and more even crown spread of 8 to 9m.