Good morning Bev,

Thank you for the email. Please see my highlighted comments on your questions raised regarding the trial.

- Perhaps the trial should be a year long rather than 3 months. This would show the trends of use of the taxi during the different seasons.
- The Planning Compliance Team at Horsham District Council have agreed the terms of this trial and we are keen to work collaboratively with yourselves, and will share the preliminary results with you following the 3 month trial period at which point we will assess next steps, including whether the trial would need to be extended, or if it provides sufficient data in order to proceed further discussions with the District Council.
- The library trial is for 3 months but the fee is £15 for the year and there are no times outside of 9-5 for residents who work.
- Thank you for bringing our attention to the library cost, we propose to charge £5 for the 3-month trial period payable to reception on registration. We are unable to extend the use of the library to weekends or evenings as the reception is open 8.30am-4.30pm Monday-Friday.

Kind regards,

From: Clerk <clerk@colgatefaygate.com>

Good afternoon,

Thank you for the details of the trial which we have documented in the minutes and posted on the website and noticeboard.

Following our meeting on 13th May the councillors had the following comments on the trial:

- Perhaps the trial should be a year long rather than 3 months. This would show the trends of use of the taxi during the different seasons.
- The library trial is for 3 months but the fee is £15 for the year and there are no times outside of 9-5 for residents who work.

Kind regards,

Bev Clayden
