Hi Matthew,

I just spoke to Lee and we are of the opinion that the impact won't be of concern from the home boarder. As they house dogs in their home, rather than kennels, they are naturally MORE UNDER CONTROL AND CALM, THEREFORE HAVING less of a noise impact. Sorry about capitals – no time to correct it.

Best,

She has doubled her numbers from 5 to 10 now, so I don't think their previous assessment will be representative any longer.

Hope that helps,

Hiya,

I was explaining to Lee that the house further down the lane (circled by you) is a home boarder. They have dogs 24/7 should they wish. It could well have an impact.
