Reasons for comment:	- Design
Comments:	Having viewed the proposed alterations and buildings I have to say that they are extremely ugly. What used to be the Railway Hotel was a grand building visited by folks arriving on the train, exiting the beautifully kept & wonderful Art Deco station hoping to view an equivalent classy building as they cross the road into an area where there are also many lovely architect designed houses and listed buildings; this would give such a good impression of our superb town. Surely this deserves using a renowned architect for such an important building? I sincerely hope that the planning department will consider these comments.

yours faithfully,

Kind regards
