Comments:	The current club house is in clear need of an upgrade, so I think this is an excellent and positive change for the people of Steyning. Although the atmosphere there is great, the facilities and interior of the current building leave a bit to be desired. I have seen the plans in the foyer, and I believe that the architect has done a great job in keeping with the stone theme that runs in the wall behind the property and the nearby police station. I also understand that included are energy efficiency and noise abatement improvements in this, which will be great to club costs and local neighbours respectively.

With the club now having several men's teams and junior teams, we need to have a cricket pavilion to match the ambition on the pitch and move into this century.

Kind regards
