Reasons for comment:	- Design
Comments:	The artists impression makes the building look like a prison. Lack of windows or any form of design, this is a new building to built on the cheap and is not in keeping with other buildings along Hurst Rd down that side of the road I do except that the existing building is in a very bad state but lets have a building that better represents Horsham as it will be the first building that visitors see when coming off the trainand not this awful looking grey monstrosity.

Kind regards
