| Comments:            | This is a brick building that has stood there for many years and is currently used for storage. I assume there will be little change in character, so little different than it has been for many years. The Blue Ship car park will presumably be used, so no new access will be created and no on-road parking. It is opposite a junction that by nature is a slow road, so no traffic issues. As a layman, I see no planning reasons why this application should be objected to and I support it. |

Kind regards
