HASCOMBE FARM EQUESTRIAN CENTRE

Change of facing materials

Walls –
Change from timber cladding to facing brick and flint panels.

Roof –
Change from fibrous cement sheeting to blue / grey slate

Reasons for change

The adjacent buildings are predominantly facing brickwork with flint panels and with slate roofs. It is felt that this gives an identity to the centre and the clients would like to repeat this on the approved new building.