Comments:	I walk my dog down the Riverside walk every morning . I can't believe such an ugly dormer construction was allowed . All other dormers in the road have been done with matching red tiles and are pleasant to look at . This one sticks out like a sore thumb ,it is just a dark grey large box .An attempt has been made to make it fit in by changing the roof tiles to grey , which looks very odd as the other semi has the original red tiles . I think this construction would devalue the adjoining house .

Kind regards
