| Comments: | Camping World were granted planning permission 6 or 7 years ago i believe to have an ice skating rink on this site. It was a disaster.The owners of Camping World went out of their way to reassure local residents that there would be no noise nuisance. That did not happen and II can remember quite clearly sitting in my lounge |

listening to Slade endlessly extolling the virtues of Christmas. Last time there was more than an ice Skating rink with a Xmas market with rides that lit up the sky and added to the noise nuisance.

Parking on the Hilliers site became completely overwhelmed despite an associated Park and Ride. It became impossible to use the other facilities at Hilliers.

It is easy to grant permission at this site on the basis of representations from Camping World that nuisance would be controlled but much more difficult as experience has taught us to manage. We have endure this once and do not want to endure this again.
