Reasons for comment:
Comments:	An update on behalf of Friends of Horsham Park. We understand that the plans submitted have been amended and have reduced many of our concerns in relation to the view through the pergola being kept more open through the use of wide shutters that will be open all day, the removal of trellis fencing around the sides and a commitment to a transparent roof, cleaned regularly. The Friends are very keen that the cafe is viable and run in a way that benefits the park's visitors. Having met the proposed owner of the Pickled Kitchen on a couple of occasions, we are reassured by his willingness to amend the plans so that they are more appropriate to the setting and that his overall approach will achieve this. We would like to withdraw our objection to the application. We hope with further amendment of the plans we would be able to support the application.

Kind regards
