Comments:	I lived directly on the edge of this proposed site not so long ago. Its a wonderful place for wildlife, families and dog walkers to enjoy. Seeing the crops grow year on year and watching the harvest. A peaceful haven for everything. I still live nearby and still go there for a nice bluebell walk or anytime of year its lovely. To see this destroyed will be devastating for all that use it for a lovely quiet woodland walk and especially for the large amount of wildlife seen there. Please please leave it alone.

Kind regards
