Reasons for comment:
Comments:	As a mum of two young children who have enjoyed the benefits of the local preschool and primary school this play park will bring a much needed addition to village life and community. It also provides opportunities for young children to keep active, socialise and share - learning vital skills for development. I [REDACTED] can see how incredibly important this additional physical and social space will be for the youngest generation in the community, as well as the opportunity for parents to make friends and share experiences with others.

Kind regards
