

Dear Horsham district council,

This is my planning statement below:

There have been no pre-application advice or relevant planning history for this plot of land.

The intended nature and proposed use of this land changing from agricultural to Equestrian is because I want to have my horse on this land with a stables. It is for purely my personal use only and not to make money from it.

Many thanks,

Phil Smith