Reasons for comment:	- Other
Comments:	The proposal is on part of the land used in the original proposed development for 471 properties, which was almost 4 times as many properties as now proposed and was rejected on Appeal. This looks like a crafty/subtle/backdoor attempt to get a foothold and then press for the remainder on the rest of the site, in due course. Nothing has changed from the original objections. This is not part of the Local Plan. It is part of the High Weald National Landscape.

It's location looks like a bolt-on and arbitrary development to the established built-up area.

Kind regards
