

All the intended works are being carried out as per site health and safety survey. The recommendations have been made to mitigate against identified possible hazardous defects and/or based on sound arboricultural management. None of the work would be detrimental nor affect the amenity value of the area.