Dear Meg

Thanks for your response.

I confirm that Horsham Denne NC withdraws its objection but is disappointed that the application was submitted retrospectively.

Good morning Sarah,

Thank you for the below.

Our conservation officer raised an objection to the application stating that the original elevational drawing didn't reflect the elevation as it stood. The plans also showed the upper fascia will be painted black, but our conservation officer commented that this would look odd as the windows are different heights now, making the large Savers sign even more incongruous. Their preference would be for the wording to be individual letters of a proportionate size like the carpeting signs next door.

The amended plans now reflect the existing frontage with the main letters now cut out and fixed to the fascia, both of which would now be non-illuminated. A trough light would provide downward illumination. These plans were received on the 14th May.

I hope this helps with the consultation request but please let me know if you have any further queries.

Many thanks

Meg Bayliss

Dear Meg

Horsham Denne NC has been consulted on the amendment to this application.

We have observed that the work appears to have already been carried out.

Please could you advise what the changes to the original application are.

Thanks

Sara Doy
