Dear Halima,

Hope your site visit went ok this week?

I've attached some photos that the client has sent me showing the building from various angles. I'm assuming you will have also taken some while you were out, but let me know if there's anything we haven't included that you need.

Many thanks
Lee

Dear Halima,

Thanks - let me know if you get a problem entering the site, otherwise I'll leave you to it.

Should be able to get photos to you before the end of the week.
Many thanks
Lee

Thank you for making the arrangements to access the application site tomorrow. It wouldn't be necessary for you to attend the site and I am happy to attend on my own.

I duly note your comments regarding the site photos and I await to receive these soon.

Good morning Halima,

Thanks for your email below.

I've spoken with the applicant and although they won't be able to be there, they have said that the gate will be left unlocked so you can get in and have a look around.

Let me know if you would prefer me to attend also, or whether you're happy to attend on your own.

I'll speak to the applicant about getting some photos. Obviously, the photo from the rear will be obscured by the hedge - so I'll ask for some photos showing the gap between the hedge and building and also the view from Juggs Lane showing the building behind the hedge.

Many thanks
Lee

I await to hear back from you soon.

In the meantime, please kindly provide timed and dated site photos showing the front, sides and rear of the storage building. Please ensure the photos show the full building from the ground up to the ridge of the roof of the building and include the immediate surroundings.

I would appreciate if the requested information could be provide by 14th November 2025. I really appreciate your kind co-operation.

Dear Halima,

Hope you're keeping well?

I see this one has landed on your desk.
Appreciate its early days but thought I'd get in touch to say hi.

Also, there is a gate at the entrance to the site which I'm told is usually locked, as the applicant doesn't live nearby. So it would be good to know when you're planning to do your site visit so the applicant can make sure he leaves it unlocked - otherwise you could end up having to climb over the gate. I don't think we need to be too precise, as he can probably leave it unlocked for a day or two - but I think he might be anxious about leaving it open for any longer than that,

Many thanks
Lee
