Good Morning Halima,

Thank you for your email, I will update these on the portal shortly, do you have any examples of a metrically scaled section plan? I can then provide you with one that has correct information. Is it possible for me to provide you with the required pictures by the 8th December as I have been away and as I am at work in the week the only images I am able to obtain are in the dark where the quality of photo is bad.

Please let me know if the extended deadline date is acceptable.

Kind Regards,

Tristan Mann
