

Yes, removing engineering from the RPA's of both the oaks I queried in my initial feedback overcomes my objection to the proposed layout. The AMS for engineering of proposed drainage at the site within RPA's will need to be secured by condition along with the tree protection measures.