Comments:	I am commenting specifically on the Construction Logistics Plan. Item 9 states that "Burning of materials on site is strictly prohibited". I had not been aware of this restriction previously. The builders have a furnace and said that they had a licence to burn wood, which I accepted. They kindly offered to email us in advance of burning anything so that we would know not to hang out washing. However, they have burned materials on at least 2 occasions subsequently and we have never been notified as they had offered.

I am not aware of the status of the Construction Logistics Plan, but wanted to flag the apparent breach of its terms.

Kind regards
