Comments:	This makes the pub look so much cleaner and tidy on that side how is it that in the 20 years I've been going in that pub there has been no issues but when a young hard working indian family take over I've had nothing but letter after letters of enforcement notices for things that are only improving this pub and restaurant I live directly behind this pub and I'm pretty well placed to have an opinion in the last 3 years I have seen the new owner spend thousands and thousands of pounds improving the pub which we could quite easily have lost in the covid era but when the brewery put it on the market rather than it become another victim of a pub

being lost and turned to a house or building plot this young family took a risk and came to our village to make a successful and friendly place for family's to meet eat and drink if this vendetta against them does not stop soon there are many other places they can move there buisness to with councils that encourage hard work and success rather than try and suffocate you and try to drive your buisness in to the ground!!!

Kind regards
