

North
Not
to

The requested works are as part of a site Health & Safety survey. Historically, the tree has been maintained at a smaller size by way of re-pollarding.

Ganoderma brackets have now been found at the base of tree which also leans towards neighbouring properties garage.

Survey found significant change in resonance in main stem when hit nylon tipped hammer.