Subject: Re: DC/26/0878, 37 Brambling Road, Horsham,

Hi Halima,

Thank you for your email - Please find the requested timed site photos attached.

Regarding the application, I would like to clarify that our property is a corner plot. The proposed works are situated on the side of the boundary with no immediate neighbor, so the project should not impact them.

As this is my first planning application, I also have a question regarding the timeline. We currently have works scheduled to begin the week of July 20th. Based on your experience with applications of this nature, do you believe this remains a feasible start date?

Many thanks,

Ben
