TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING ACT, 1990 (Section 106A)
TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING (Modification & Discharge of Planning Obligations) Regulations 1992

On behalf of: Mr and Mrs Keith Henley, HHC Developments Ltd

In pursuance of their powers under the above-mentioned Act and Regulations, the Council hereby notify you that they PERMIT the following, that is to say:

Variation of s106 legal agreements (allied to planning permission HF/15/90 and HF/32/98) in relation to planning obligations for the areas identified as the green land in a s106 agreement dated 21 January 1992 and the yellow land in a s106 agreement dated 16 February 2000 (as amended in a S106 agreement dated 10th of March 2017 (allied to planning permission DC/16/2919)).

Henfield Business Park, Shoreham Road, Henfield, West Sussex

The above S106 Agreements are varied to release the green land from its obligations under Clause 6 of the 1992 S106 Agreement, and to delete Clause 6 relating to the yellow land within the 2000 S106 Agreement (as amended).

Right of Appeals

If you are aggrieved by the Council's refusal to modify or discharge the planning obligation, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 106B of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

You must appeal within 6 months of the date of the decision notice. Please note, only the applicant possesses the right of appeal.

Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>. If you are unable to access the online appeal form, please contact the Planning Inspectorate to obtain a paper copy of the appeal form on tel: 0303 444 5000.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal.
