Halima

I don't have any timed photos so I have enclosed a couple that I have.

I also confirm the drawings are all to scale.

I can't show any information on the neighbours windows, I have enclosed 2 photos, one showing the hedge running down the right boundary (front the front) which as you can see blocks any view to the neighbouring property and the second showing the neighbours outhouse window which in line with our extension. That said I have attached a drawing which shows 60° from the corner of the property.

Thanks
Matt
