Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:	- Highway Access and Parking - Other - Privacy Light and Noise
Comments:	When the building was initially applied for it was stated it was for a home office [REDACTED]. Since the studio has been built it has been used for advertised pilates classes which have become more frequent [REDACTED]. The planning permission is being applied for in stages, which seems strange. We live on a small residential street and the pilates classes are having an impact on cars coming down the street and the parking.

It is also a loss of privacy keep having clients turning up and parking outside your house to attend pilates classes.

The applicant originally said the studio was only for home office use, this has not been adhered to and they are now saying it is for 121 or 222 classes but once business use is granted I believe this will increase as there has been little regard for regulations taken.
