Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I strongly support this planning proposal and the benefits it will bring to the local area. At a time when housing demand continues to outstrip supply, developments such as this are essential in addressing the shortage and easing pressure on existing stock. The scheme will enhance the range of homes available, providing greater choice for residents at different life stages. This is particularly important for younger people and first-time buyers, who increasingly face barriers to accessing housing due to high costs and limited availability. Increasing supply is a key step toward improving affordability over time, and this proposal contributes meaningfully to that goal.

In addition, new homes will help sustain local services, shops, and transport links, supporting a more vibrant and balanced community. Overall, the development represents a well-considered and necessary addition, and I fully support its approval.

Kind regards
