

Incident Handover

West Sussex
Fire & Rescue
Service

This incident is now closed and the duty of care is passed to you as the owner, occupier, or responsible person.

If you are not the owner or landlord, you are advised to provide a copy of this incident handover form to the owner or landlord immediately.

Please note that there may be additional risks at this incident site and by signing this form, responsibility for the site and any accidents or injuries which may occur as a result of the incident will pass from West Sussex Fire & Rescue Service to you being the responsible person.

Service present	Action taken
Electricity Yes ☐ No ☐	Water administered
Gas Yes ☐ No ☐
Water Yes ☐ No ☐

Other (please state)

Hazards: Condition of tree	Control measures: Expert analysis advised
-------------------------------	--

Environmental issues:

As the owner, occupier or responsible person, you should be aware that responsibility for security issues involved with the site are your responsibility and that media coverage of the incident may make the site more vulnerable to security issues. You are advised to check the identity and position of any persons that visit the site after the incident.