| Comments:            | Ashington absolutely does not need more housing unless they take out the old and replace with new. We are the poor people in Rectory Lane by the Elivia homes site and it's living hell. Nobody thought about the impact on us and pretty sure does not care either. Rectory Lane is lethal with all the traffic and adding to it will not help. We don't need pitches as we already have them and |

who cares about allotments. The council should put a new pavilion by the current pitch. Where are the kids going to go to school? Which doctors surgery is everybody going to use. The high street is a race track and parking is dreadful. This makes absolutely no sense whatsoever. Ashington is being destroyed.
