Additional information for applicant

Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981
The Applicant's attention is drawn to the provisions of both the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 and the Protection of Badgers Act 1992. Under these Acts, it is an offence to intentionally or recklessly kill, disturb, damage or destroy a protected species or its habitat. This includes but is not limited to wild birds, bats, badgers, dormice, reptiles and great crested newts.

The Conservation of Habitats and Species Regulations 2017
The Applicant is advised that a licence from Natural England pursuant to Regulation 55 of The Conservation of Habitats and Species Regulations 2017 authorising the specified activity/development to go ahead may be required. The Applicant is advised to liaise with Natural England directly.

Unidentified Contamination
If, during development, contamination not previously identified is found to be present at the site then no further development shall be carried out until a remediation strategy has been submitted to and approved by the local planning authority detailing how this unsuspected contamination shall be dealt with. The remediation strategy shall be implemented as approved.

Yours faithfully

Emma Parkes
Head of Development and Building Control
