Comments:	Having been a member of this business for two years I can say first hand the positive impact it has had on both myself and the local community. With initiatives such as the group community running sessions, social events that appeal to a wide range of his customers and raising money for charity, Paul is providing a quality service to so many people above and beyond that of the main fitness and wellbeing role. Personally, being a teacher, the fitness sessions are now a vital and regular (4 times a week) part of my weekly routine to help me destress from the job and it has helped me to improve my fitness and my mental health more than any other alternatives I have tried before. I know that this is the same for many other members of the business and that there is huge amount of support for Paul and what he does to help everyone on a daily basis. This new location has been provided with a large choice of small sessions to choose from. Parking/traffic has never been an issue and the sessions are run quietly without any issues with the local community.

Kind regards
