Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:	- Design
Comments:	With reference to extension works at the above property. The works have now commenced and the external cladding and glazing have been completed. However, the newly installed glazing does not comply with the approved plans. The glazing is clear glass and does not feature the Georgian fenestrations as indicated on the approved plans.

The property is located on what is known as the Heritage Estate and all dwellings have the Georgian fenestrations within the window glazing both front and rear, which is a defining feature of all the properties.

I believe the glazing works are in breach of the agreed plans.

Kind regards
